the advocate and representative of the member lake associations after the resignation of James Hood. At this time she had no old business to report, and there was no new business brought from the floor. John Slater moved, and Robert Thill 2nd to close the annual meeting of NYSFOL, Inc. The ar's notes were reviewed for approval. On a . Bill Harmon moved to accept the Treasurer's Report, John Slater

nd. The report was approved as presented.

Office Report, Nancy Mueller: Nancy Mueller thanked the attendees for attendance and for their early registrations. She emphasized the individual member option for Waterworks. She also reminded associations that access to experts is a benefit of membership, so keep questions coming. Contact and questions helps her build future conference agendas. Nancy suggested that associations may want to buy a copy of Diet for a Small Lake for local libraries.

By-Laws: Recent changes to the by-laws, ad membership together with the reasons for the chang Lakescaping Awards: Don Cook received a $500 of the Honeoye association.

Regional Meetings: Don Cook announced the 16 th Western Regional conference on October 16th.

Proposed CSLAP Changes: Nancy Mueller discussed the long waiting list for CSLAP. The board has implemented a rotational schedule to allow these lakes to participate in 2011. She also announced a fee increase for 2011. Waiting list lakes are invited to join CSLAP Light in 2010.

Other Business: Nancy Mueller asked attendees to support the Silent Auction and the raffle, featuring the aquatic plant mapping survey. Next year's conference will be held at White Eagle on this same weekend (1st weekend in May). NYSFOLA appreciates the support and contributions of our vendors again this year. Bob Rosati reviewed some of the silent auction items. Don Cook suggested buying LED lights to replace flares for lake celebrations.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned on a motion from Robert Thill and Bill Harmon 2nd, passed.
